SYNOPSIS OF REVENUE LAWS

Taxes become due and may be paid on and after the first Monday in February succeeding the levy.

Taxes become delinquent after May 31st and bear interest at 12% per annum.

On current taxes paid in full on or before March 15th a rebate of 3% is allowed.

Payment of first one-half taxes may be made not later than May 31st.

If one-half tax is paid on or before May 31st, remaining one-half may be paid on or before November 30th, without interest, but if such payment of last one-half is not so made, interest at 12% will be charged from June 1st preceding.

Certificates of delinquency may issue any time after one year from date of delinquency if ordered by County Commissioners, bear interest at 12% per annum and may be foreclosed after three years from date of delinquency.

Taxes for which no Certificate of delinquency is issued will be foreclosed by County after being delinquent five years.

Current taxes may be paid without paying delinquent taxes.

Property may be redeemed at any time before delivery of Tax Deed.
